

All Members Meeting - September 13

Ever wonder what NAFSR is doing these days?

We're holding a special video conference (Zoom Meeting) for all NAFSR members to learn what Board members and others have been doing lately.

All members are invited to join us on Wednesday, September 13, 2023, at 2:00 p.m. Mountain Time. The meeting is scheduled for 1 hour.

A Zoom link and other details will be provided later.

Presenters and topics include:

Steve Ellis, Board Chair

NAFSR is being called upon for interviews and testimony - find out how Steve has been representing NAFSR's members regarding fire retardant, wildfires, forest management, climate change, and more.

Ranotta McNair

Hear about Ranotta's trip to DC and her experience testifying and meeting with Congressional members and staff on forest management and the wildfire crisis.

Doug Crandall

Doug continues to utilize his expertise and contacts to make sure NAFSR is "in the know" and engaged where we can be of most value. Hear Doug's perspective about how NAFSR is viewed by others and the importance of our engagement.

Nora Rasure

Nora participated in the agency's 3-day recreation strategy workshop. Learn about what's happening with the national "Reimagine Recreation" effort.

After these presentations, we will hold a discussion with Q & A from our members. Details to follow.

Mark your calendars and save the date!
